1035 Oakley Crescent

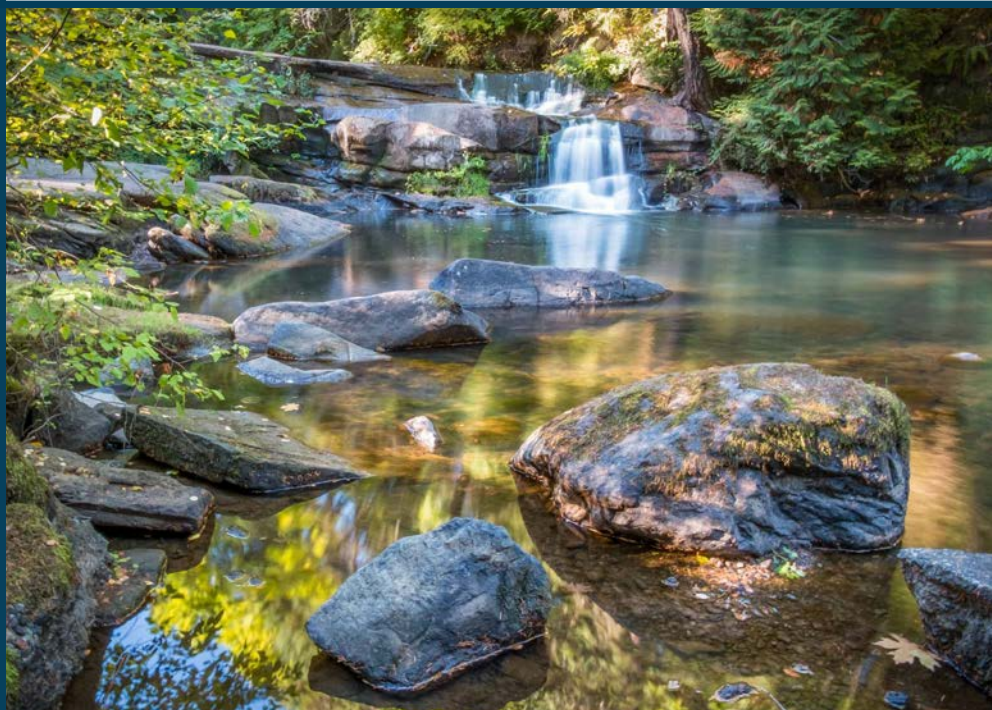

This three bedroom rancher with detached garage is situated on two legal lots with lane access. This is a great central location near the hospital, schools, restaurants and shopping. The property may qualify for the addition of a carriage house and details can be confirmed through the City of Nanaimo. Large windows in the main living area bring in abundant natural light. The spacious primary bedroom is located at the opposite side of the home from the other bedrooms, allowing for privacy. The fenced level yard provides plenty of room to play and relax.
